Earth has not anything to show more fair:
Dull would he be of soul who could pass by
A sight so touching in its majesty:
This city now doth, like a garment, wear the beauty of the morning; silent, bare, ships, towers, domes, theatres, and temples lie
Open unto the fields, and to the sky;
All bright and glittering in the smokeless air.
Never did sun more beautifully Steep
In his first splendour, valley, rock, or hill;
Ne'er saw I, never felt, a calm so deep!
The river glideth at it own sweet will.
Dear God! the very houses seem asleep;
And all that mighty heart is lying still!

6. What are the characteristics of a good language learner? Suggest some activities that provide opportunities to the students to become autonomous language learners. 10+10
